

- * Communicating with the Network Director
- * Overseeing assistant Coordinators who handle responsibilities such as scheduling, meals, supplies, activities, donations
- * Coordinating volunteers and scheduling with support congregation Coordinators
- * Acting as primary contact for any emergencies
- * Communicating policy, procedures and other information to volunteers, ensuring guest confidentiality and addressing any issues concerning congregation volunteers

Being a Coordinator is a big job, but it is important to remember that St. Michael congregation will be hosting only 4 weeks out of the year. Most Coordinators work full time and have children and other commitments so the demands are quite manageable. You will also have the support of assistant coordinators, well-trained volunteers and the network director. In the best case scenario, St. Michael would have co-coordinators who share the tasks of directing efforts.

Coordinators may serve for a couple of years; in some networks they have served for 15 years or more. The reward of seeing families go from despair to independence and volunteers engage in the most meaningful outreach of their lives makes it all worthwhile.

STARTING MAY 20 - ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS & SUMMER SCHEDULE

The Adult Sunday School Class began the Philip Yancey study, Prayer: Does it Make any Difference? on Sunday, May 20 at 8:30 AM in the classroom (across from the kitchen). There will be no Sunday School on May 27. In June, July and August, the adult Sunday School Class will meet once a month, on the first Sunday of each month. The study will carry us through the summer months as well when the fall schedule begins. This series will help us to consider our relationship with God. Please join us as we “explore and experience the very heartbeat--the most fundamental, challenging, perplexing, and deeply rewarding aspect--of our relationship with God: prayer.”

JUNE 24th thru JULY 1 - FAMILY PROMISE HOSTING WEEK

This week will mark our sixth opportunity to showcase St. Michael's welcoming ways and become part of moving homeless families into homes. As we host our guests this week, we will be in need of volunteers to prepare the evening meal, plan evening activities, drive the van to take the families to the day center in Lemoyne, and to stay overnight as a congregational host. Please consider how you can volunteer. The gifts of your time and your food make this ministry possible.

NEW!!! CHRISTIAN EDUCATION COMMITTEE FORMS

The Christian Education Committee is now forming. Your input is vital to the educational programs at St. Michael!

We are to live in relationship with God. To more deeply appreciate this gift and to live in the fullness of God's promises to us, we must continue to nourish our understanding of what this means. There are many pathways to this deeper understanding that can include, literature, music, film, art, discussion and more. Be a part of the team to plan these experiences for the members of St Michael.

One important project that we will begin is a children's ministry that could begin as early as this fall. Your ideas and talents are needed to begin to frame this important endeavor.

The first meeting was held at Sue Will's home, 235 Verbeke St, Harrisburg, on Wednesday, May 23. If you missed that initial meeting and want to join the group, call Sue at 717-756-3337.

FOURTH OF JULY FOOD COLLECTION

Loaves of Love, the food pantry that the members of St. Michael so generously supports with the on going collection as well as quarterly, special food collections, is in need of JELLO. Jello is a food item that most of us take for granted but for Loaves of Love it is a very important item that is not provided by the PA Food Bank. Jello serves the clients in different ways. If they are feeling ill, it is one of the foods that most can eat and keep down giving them the nourishment they need. It is also helpful for taking medications.

A goal of 125, 3 oz. boxes of Jello, any flavor, no sugar free, has been set. Collection will be through the month of June. Let's see if the members of St. Michael can achieve this goal. For questions please see any member of MTS (Shirley Kramer, Ron Maynard, Wayne Noss, Cheryl Smith, and Susan Wesley).

PRIDE FEST – JULY 27-29

Mark the dates and plan to volunteer and be part St.Michael's booth and ministry outreach for 2012 Pride Fest. Preliminary plans were made in May. Stay tuned for future details.
